ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF SCOUTING

Celebrate New Year's Day at the Comerica Bank New Year's Parade on Friday, January 1, 2010, in Downtown Dallas. As one of the largest New Year's events in the Great Scoutwest, the family friendly parade attracts tens of thousands of spectators, including fans visiting North Texas for the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic.

The parade starts in the Dallas Arts District and concludes at the American Airlines Center. The parade will be televised locally multiple times on KDFW-TV (FOX 4), KDFI-TV (My27), and on myfoxdfw.com

Last year Scouts were involved throughout the entire parade. This is a great opportunity for you to also celebrate Scouting's 100th Anniversary.

You can sign up to be a part of the celebration at circle10.org and click on New Years Day Parade.
